ARTILLERY DUEL.

Fierce Battle Between British and Boer Cannons.

THE LATTER ARE SILENCED.

Effective Work of Pieces From Her Majesty's Ship Powerful.

GENERAL WHITE'S FULL REPORT.

Commander of the English Forces at Ladysmith Informs London War Office About the Capture of a Portion of His Valiant Men.

London, Nov. 1.—It was announced in a special dispatch from Ladysmith that the Boers again closed around that place on Monday night sending shells into the British camp. The two guns landed from the British cruiser Powerful opened fire on the Boers at dawn Tuesday. The Boers brought up more guns but some of them were silenced. It is added that the Boers' loss must have been heavy. The garrison of Ladysmith is described as being in good spirits and confident and the troops are said to be full of fight. The artillery duel was still in progress Tuesday night.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The Tageblatt says Count Bothmer, president of the German peace societies, has telegraphed to Queen Victoria, praying her to accept the mediation of the United States in the war with the Transvaal.

London, Nov. 1.—The British war office made public a dispatch received from General White describing the operations of Monday. It was as follows:

"Took out from Ladysmith a brigade of mounted troops, two brigade divisions of the Royal artillery, the Natal field battery and two brigades of infantry to reconnoiter and force the enemy's main position to the north, and if the opportunity should offer to capture the hill behind Farquhar's farm, which had on the previous day been held in strength by the enemy.

"In connection with this advance a column consisting of the Tenth mountain artillery, four half companies of the Gloucesters and six companies of the Royal Irish Fusiliers, the whole under Lieutenant Colonel Carlton and Major Adaye, deputy assistant adjutant general, was dispatched at 11 p. m. on the 29th, to march by night up Bellaport and seize Nicholson's Neck or some position near Nicholson's Neck, thus turning the enemy's right flank.

"The main advance was successfully carried out, the objective of the attack being found evacuated and an artillery duel between our field batteries and the enemy's guns of the position and Maxims is understood to have caused heavy loss to the enemy. The reconnaissance forced the enemy to fully disclose his position and after a strong counter attack on our right the infantry brigade and cavalry had been repulsed, the troops were slowly withdrawn to camp, pickets being left on observation.

"Later in the engagement the naval contingent under Captain Lampton of Her Majesty's ship Powerful came into action and silenced, with their extremely accurate fire, the enemy's guns.

"The circumstances which attended the movements of Lieutenant Carlton's column are not yet fully known, but from reports received the column appears to have carried out the night march unmolested until within two miles of Nicholson's Neck.

"At this point two boulders rolled from the hill and a few rifle shots stamped the infantry ammunition mules. The stampede spread to the battery mules which broke loose and got away with practically the whole of the gun equipment and the greater portion of the regimental small arm ammunition. The reserve was similarly lost.

"The infantry battalions, however, fixed bayonets and accompanied by the personnel of the artillery, seized a hill on the left of the road, two miles from the Neck with but little opposition. They remained unmolested till dawn, the time being occupied in aggregating the defense of the hill and constructing strong stone walls as cover from fire. At dawn a skirmishing attack on our position was commenced by the enemy, but made no way until 9:30 a. m. when strong reinforcements enabled them to rush to the attack with great energy. Their fire became very searching and two companies of the Gloucesters in an advance position were ordered to fall back. The enemy then pressed to short range, the losses on our side becoming very numerous.

At 3 p. m. our ammunition was practically exhausted, the position was captured and the survivors of the column fell into the enemy's hands. The enemy treated our wounded with humanity, General Joubert at once dispatching a letter to me offering a safe conduct to doctors and ambulances to remove the wounded. A medical officer and parties to render first class aid to the wounded were dispatched to the scene of action from Ladysmith and the ambulance at dawn.

"The want of success of the column was due to the misfortune of the mules stampeding and the consequent loss of the guns and small arm ammunition reserve.

"The official list of casualties and prisoners will be reported shortly. The latter are understood to have been sent by rail to Pretoria. The security of Ladysmith is in no way affected."

A Ray of Comfort.
The gloom caused by the British disaster at Ladysmith was in a measure relieved by the story giving an account of the heroic stand made by the decimated battalions until their last cartridges were gone.

The British were momentarily shaken by General White's use of the word "capitulate" in his first telegram, but now that it is known that the Gloucesters and Fusiliers fought against overwhelming odds and upheld the best traditions of the British army, the tension has been relieved since there is no longer ground to dread that the loss of life and men was accompanied by dishonor.

The details show the catastrophe in a brighter aspect. The full battalions were not engaged, and therefore, the list of prisoners is materially reduced while the disaster now appears to have been not so much the consequence of defects in the plan of action as to a misfortune whereby the column was deprived of its ammunition. Still it seems incomprehensible why the plight of the luckless column was not known at headquarters, as the scene of the surrender was only about three miles northwest of Ladysmith and Lieutenant Colonel Carlton must have expected relief to reach him or, instead of attempting to occupy a defensive position, he would have retraced his steps to Ladysmith when he suffered the loss of his ammunition.

Apart from General White's statement that the losses are very numerous, there is nothing to indicate the extent of them.

The concluding sentence of General White's relative to the safety of Ladysmith was received here with a certain reserve in view of the fact that similar official assurances were given recently at Dundee and Glencoe, and there is intense anxiety for further news of the reported renewed attack which is not mentioned in the official dispatches.

The calamity has served to show the British who are their friends. The papers comment on the splendid reserve of patriotism existing in the far-away colonies and the deep-seated feeling of friendship and sympathy of the great kindred nation across the Atlantic.

Only One Permitted.

London, Nov. 1.—It was learned that the British government has been obliged to refuse permission for the United States to send four officers to watch the Transvaal war, owing to the precedent which only permits one representative from each recognized power. Captain Stephen L'Honnemieu Slocum, the United States military attaché at Lisbon, has been selected. He was in London, buying an outfit and sails Saturday.

Defense Committee Meets.

London, Nov. 1.—The cabinet meeting was exceptionally brief but afterwards the defense committee of the cabinet, consisting of the Duke of Devonshire, A. J. Balfour, the Marquis of Lansdowne and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, met at the foreign office and held a long conference with the commander-in-chief of the forces, Field Marshal Lord Wolseley.

Dr. Leyds Given Permission.

Brussels, Nov. 1.—Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the Transvaal, has received the consent of the British secretary of war, the Marquis of Lansdowne, to allow a telegram to be sent to Pretoria to ask the number of killed and wounded on the side of the Boers.

London, Nov. 1.—Lieutenant General Charles Wright Younghusband, retired, is dead. He was born June 20, 1821.

THE CHICAGO POLICE

Suddenly Called to Rescue of "Dr." John Alexander Dowie.

"DIVINE HEALER" BESIEGED.

The Leader and His Zion Guard Were Pelted With Eggs and Other Missiles During the Stay in the Church.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—"Dr." John Alexander Dowie was rescued from his Oak Park church, Marion and Lake streets, at 2:45 a. m. by a sergeant and 20 policemen from the West Lake street station. He had been a prisoner in the building during the night.

Chief Kiple ordered his men out when word came that the "doctor" was kept a prisoner by a mob that defied the efforts of the Cicero police. Fearing they would attack the place the city police were rushed to the suburb in a patrol wagon.

When the city police arrived "Dr." Dowie and nearly 400 of his followers emerged from the hall led by the "Zion Guards."

"Dr." Dowie's meeting was one of the most tumultuous he held. His "Zion Guard" was pelted with eggs and stones, windows in the building were broken and his followers were severely beaten by the crowd. For hours Chief Wallens and 12 of the Cicero police force struggled in vain to keep order. They drove the crowd away from the building a short distance, but could not scatter it. Two hundred men remained close by, declaring they would not go till Dowie appeared.

The trouble started at 7:30 o'clock when "Dr." Dowie entered the church. It continued without intermission all night, although after midnight the crowd contented itself with keeping up a passive siege.

The police scattered the crowd, but 200 men gather close to the church which was closely watched by scouts. This was kept up for hours. Once the crowd set fire to a load of hay. The blaze was extinguished by the fire department.

Witnesses Keep Mute.

London, Ky., Nov. 1.—The feudists charged with murder at Manchester, Clay county, Ky., have comparatively easy sailing, as witnesses summoned to appear and testify against them will not testify against the warring factions. Mrs. Sarah Collins, chief witness against James Millard Philpot and Alex Fischer, charged with the murder of her husband, committed suicide by taking poison, fearing to testify against them.

To Restrain Rio Grande.

St. Louis, Nov. 1.—Mexico's boundary commissioner, Senor Jacobi Blanco, whose headquarters are at El Paso, Texas, is in the city for the purpose of studying the methods of the United States government in curbing the Missouri river. Senor Blanco hopes to make use of the knowledge attained in keeping the Rio Grande within its channel and thus preventing the rise of the troublesome boundary question.

About Russian Finances.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—The Nevostil says M. De Witte, the minister of finance, has recently addressed the directors of a number of private credit institutions and assured them that the Russian financial condition exceeded that of France or Great Britain. The dearth of money, he added, was the result of the world's general financial position and did not afford ground for uneasiness.

Deboe Will Aid.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 1.—United States Senator W. J. Deboe was admitted to practice in the Kentucky court of appeals. It is understood that Deboe desires to assist anti-Goebel Democrats in their suit filed in the court of appeals and submitted, compelling county election boards to give Brown Democrats representation in appointments of precinct election officers.

Death of Mr. Saunders.

Omaha, Nov. 1.—Ex-Governor Alvin Saunders died. He was one of the earliest settlers in the state and during his career was a prominent figure in its political and business life. His daughter is the wife of Major Russell Harrison, son of the ex-president.

Schooner Ashore.

Nassau, Nov. 1.—The American schooner Celina, Captain Murray, of Bath, Me., from Philadelphia for Galveston, is ashore off Abaco and signaling for assistance, but is not approachable.

Columbus, O., Nov. 1.—The American Gas Governor company, Cleveland capital stock $10,000.

A TRIFLE WEAKER,

But No Material Change in the Vice President's Condition.

New York, Nov. 1.—Vice President Garret A. Hobart spent the most restful night that he has experienced in the past two weeks. He fell asleep under the influence of opiates and did not awaken during the night.

Mr. Evans, Mr. Hobart's private secretary, said that the vice president's condition was more hopeful than he had been for the last few days, but again acknowledged that his chances of recovery were as nothing and that none of the members of the family nor the physician would be surprised if he died at any time now either in his sleep or during his waking hours. After he awoke Mr. Hobart took a little nourishment. Many telegrams of sympathy have been received at the vice president's house during the past day or two.

The following bulletin was issued at 1:10 p. m.: "The vice president has rested very well and taken considerable interest in current affairs. There is no change in his condition except that he is a trifle weaker."

WITHIN AN AOE

Of Being Pitched Into a Ravine Was a Street Car.

Cleveland, Nov. 1.—A Willson avenue street car carrying 40 passengers and running at a good rate of speed, jumped the track on the Willson avenue bridge which spans a deep ravine. The side railing of the bridge was torn away and the front trucks went over the side of the structure, after which the car stopped, overhanging the gully 75 feet below. Women fainted and men fought their way to the doors. Had the car moved another foot or two it would undoubtedly have gone over. None were injured.

Money For Foreign Missions.

Cleveland, Nov. 1.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church considered a proposition to unite with the Home Missionary society, and decided that both could do most good work separately. It was agreed to at once send money to the missionaries in India on account of a recent landslide which killed many people. Addresses were made on missionary work in India, China, Korea and Japan. A discussion of plans for raising $200,000 as a twentieth century missionary thanks offering.

None Left Out.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The positive statement is made here by authority that Spain does not retain possession of a single island in the Philippine archipelago. This is called forth by the declaration in the Spanish cortes of the Count d'Almenas that through ignorance the American commissioners had allowed three islands at the northern extremity of the archipelago to remain under Spanish control through their definition in the treaty of the boundary of the group.

Bids Opened.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Bids were opened at the navy department for the construction of six-sheathed and coppered cruisers authorized by the last naval appropriation bill. These vessels will be of about 8,200 tons displacement, a little larger than the Raleigh and Cincinnati class. The speed is to be not less than 16½ knots.

Seven Deaths.

San Francisco, Nov. 1.—The United States transport steamer City of Puebla arrived here from Manila via Nagasaki and Kobe, being 27 days in the voyage from Manila. The Puebla carried 105 enlisted sick soldiers, 15 of the hospital corps and 79 discharged soldiers and seven officers. There were seven deaths during the voyage.

Building Gutted.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—The five-story building on Washington street occupied by the Empire steam carpet cleaning works; McGregor & Company, manufacturers of machinery; Frank Swett & Company, saw manufacturers, and Becker Brothers, electrical engine manufacturers, burned Wednesday morning. Loss, $125,000.

Mission of Dr. James.

New York, Nov. 1.—Dr. Edward James, professor of public administration in the University of Chicago, sailed for Antwerp. He is commissioned to make a careful investigation into municipal administration in Europe, particularly in Germany, France and England.

Judge Long Appointed.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Judge John D. Long, Republican national committeeman from Florida, was appointed diplomatic agent and consul general at Cairo, Egypt.

Lexington, Va., Nov. 1.—Cadet S. C. Nott of New Orleans, one of seven typhoid fever patients in the hospital of the Virginia military institute, is dead.

FAREWELL TO LIPTON.

Ovation Given to the Owner of the Cup Challenger.

HE DEPARTS FOR ENGLAND.

While He Did Not Win the Yachting Trophy, He Is Glad He Captured Hearts of the American People.

New York, Nov. 1.—Sir Thomas Lipton sailed for his home in England. He received a surprising tribute of the esteem in which he is held by a great many people in a kind of a triumphal march through several downtown streets, a great reception at the American line pier where he went on board the St. Louis, and a series of informal receptions from thousands of people. He also received word of the presentation of the loving cup which will be ready by Christmas for him.

Sir Thomas and a few friends left the Fifth Avenue hotel at 8:30 a. m. to go to the Astor house to meet the loving cup committee. When the Astor house was reached the Eighth regiment band was in waiting with some of the members of the loving cup committee and the hand played as the carriages were driven up in front of the hotel. The party remained but a few minutes at the hotel. The hand, followed by the carriages, started off down Broadway playing a lively air.

All the way to the American line pier Sir Thomas Lipton got a reception that surprised him. People lined up on the sidewalks and cheered him and many rushed out to shake hands with Sir Thomas as his carriage slowly passed. At Washington market a lot of market men in their working clothes stopped the carriage making Sir Thomas shake hands with them. He was soon surrounded by longshoremen, street sweepers and vendors, and Sir Thomas smiled as he shook hands right and left.

Sir Thomas and his party ascended to the second floor of the American line pier, where a platform had been erected. The long floor had been decorated with banniers and hunting and a large crowd had assembled, among them being many women. On the platform was a floral representation of the Shamrock with hull of immortelles and sails of white silk. The sea was made of white and yellow chrysanthemums and red roses. The vessel was four feet long. At the mast-head floated the flag of the Royal Ulster Yacht club.

Presented a Loving Cup.

When Sir Thomas and the others had ascended the platform, ex-Mayor William L. Strong, chairman of the loving cup committee, signalled for silence and John M. Beach, one of the committeemen, formally advised Sir Thomas of the loving cup that is to be presented to him, adding that he and every one else trusted that Sir Thomas would soon return. Sir Thomas was cheered a half dozen times before he was allowed to reply, when he said:

"It is impossible for me to convey at once my feelings this moment. This extraordinary reception that I have received has gone to my heart. The great kindness shown me here has endeared the American people to me and I am proud to be held in such esteem by you.

"I will always cherish the cup which is to follow me and I will prize it, I assure you; much more than I would the America's cup.

"As you know, I came here with designs on one of your most valued possessions. I did not accomplish my purpose. But I have been thoroughly compensated. It was a square and fair race and I was squarely and fairly licked. I could not have received kinder or more courteous treatment.

"I am very sorry to be leaving you, but I sincerely thank you for your kindness and goodness.

Sir Thomas shook hands with all who could get near him and pushed his way to the gangplank and a great cheer arose as he stepped on the plank.

On board the St. Louis a surprise awaited Sir Thomas, this being the presentation of a handsome loving cup by a committee representing the American guests of Sir Thomas on the yacht Erin during the yacht races.

Sir Thomas Lipton, in accepting the cup, said: "I have failed to win the cup, but I have won the good wishes and the heart of the American people, and I shall prize that more than the cup."

WEATHER FORECAST FOR KENTUCKY.—Fair Thursday; cooler in eastern portion; Fair Friday; northerly winds.

GENERAL TAYLOR is finding out that he is not in it with Gov. Bradley as a Republican leader.

WHAT the Democrats of Kentucky will do to General Taylor and Mr. Brown next Tuesday will be a plenty.

WHAT next? Mr. Brounston now charges Senator Goebel with being hand in hand with the tollgate raiders. It has to be a very cold day when the gang opposing the Democratic leader can't trump up a new charge.

THE big registration is an indication that the people mean business this year. There is one noticeable feature connected with it and that is it required but little work on the part of the Democrats to get out their vote.

WHILE Gen. Taylor is greeted by only a few hundred at most of his speaking appointments, Senator Goebel's audiences most always run up into the thousands. At Lebanon a crowd estimated at 3,000 turned out to meet him and at Springfield the crowd was nearly as large as at Lebanon. The Republicans have to trot out Governor Bradley to draw the people.

THE Taylor-Deboe gang didn't intend at the start to call on Gov. Bradley to help 'em out. They were going to make their own fight and have all the credit for it. But it's amusing how they finally went down on their knees to Mr. Bradley, and now the latter is pretty near the whole show. Taylor and Deboe will be back numbers after next Tuesday, if we mistake not the signs of the times.

THE Brownites and Republicans have been counting ex-Governor Knott against Senator Goebel, but their talk in this instance is like a great deal of their wild statements. Mr. Goebel spoke at Lebanon this week and was entertained at the home of Mr. Knott's brother. At the close of Mr. Goebel's speech Mr. Joseph Knott came forward and stated that his uncle was for Mr. Goebel and the full ticket, and was heartily supporting it.

MARK HANNA is parading through Ohio defending the infamous trusts. He brazenly declares they are "beneficent organizations." There is not a combine in existence to-day that is not robbing the people, by forcing them to pay more for the goods controlled by the combine than what is just and fair. Mr. Taylor is Boss Hanna's trust candidate for Governor of Kentucky. Let the people remember this next Tuesday.

QUESTIONS FOR GOVERNOR BRADLEY.

Governor Bradley will tell you to-day to vote for the Republican ticket, but will he tell you why he vetoed the act, passed by both branches of the last Legislature repealing the Martin law, commonly known as the turnpike guard law?

Can Governor Bradley satisfactorily explain why the Republican members of the Kentucky Legislature, under his direction, voted against the Chinn School Book bill? The effect of this bill, had it become a law, would have been a reduction of 40 per cent. in the price you have to pay for school books for your children. Can Bradley explain to your satisfaction why he vetoed this bill thereby taking, it is estimated, $700,000 out of the pockets of the people of Kentucky and putting it into the coffers of the book trust?

Governor Bradley may conjure up some imaginary reasons, after such long silence in the campaign, why you should vote the Republican ticket; but will he tell you why the Republican members of the Legislature voted against the repeal of the Guard law and why he vetoed the act repealing same after it had been passed by a Democratic Legislature over the united vote of the Republican members? That veto cost the tax-payers of Mason County several thousand good, hard-earned dollars.

Can Governor Bradley satisfactorily explain why he vetoed the McChord bill, which provided for a commission which was to stand like a storm wall between the rapacity of railroads and the merchant and farmer, forcing the railroads to charge only a fair and reasonable compensation for transporting freight, and putting a stop to this nefarious business by which the large concerns get low rates, while the small merchant, the farmer and other light shippers are forced to make up the loss by paying excessively high rates? Can be tell why the Republican members of the Legislature voted against this bill, thereby voting against the interests of the people and in favor of the railroads?

Let Mr. Bradley explain why the Republicans in the last Legislature voted against the Bradburn Anti-trust bill, a bill designed to exterminate trusts in Kentucky. Maysville merchants know that the trusts have fixed and are continuing to fix the prices of nearly all the articles you sell and that too at a higher price than heretofore. You know that you are subject to their command. Farmers have seen fencing wire, nails, leather, agricultural implements and nearly everything else used on the farm, advance in price since the trusts have monopolized these articles. You farmers and merchants know and everybody else who can distinguish between a "hawk and a handsaw" knows that trusts are dangerous both to the liberties and the pocket-books of the people, and can Mr. Bradley explain to your satisfaction why he refused to approve a bill intended to root out this growing evil?

There is but one sane and sound answer to all these questions and that is simply this, the Republican party has entered into an unholy alliance with the trusts, under the leadership of Mark Hanna.

The Glass Trust.

[Pittsburg Post.]

The glass industry has had 100 per cent. protection longer than any other industry. It is filled with trusts, both of manufacturers and of laborers. Because of these tariff trusts we pay two prices for inferior glass. We now pay more per box for window glass than our grandfathers paid in 1800. A box of 10 by 12 glass which sold for $2.40 in 1860 and for $2.04 in 1890 now sells for about $2.75 in our protected market. In Belgium or England it sells for $1.30 or $1.40. These glass trusts are making great profits by "working" the people rather than by working their mills. The way to improve this industry and to give us cheaper and better glass is to take away the tariff pap from the 100-year-old infant. And yet many people are cudgeling their brains to find a real remedy for trusts.

LEXINGTON Leader: "The engagement is announced of Miss Corinne Ciebume Wilson and Mr. O. H. Browning, both of this city. The wedding will take place in the early winter. Miss Wilson is the niece of Gen. John Boyd and has been for several years a successful and much esteemed teacher in the Davidson kindergarten. Her fiancé is one of Lexington's rising young business men, having been associated with the firm of Browning & Ringo, but now holding a position at Harting's drug store. Mr. Browning came to this city a few years ago from Mason County."

Mr. Browning is a brother of the late J. L. Browning, of this city.

PREF. IRA HICKS forecasts the weather for November as follows: Rain from 1st to 3rd, followed by cold wave and snow to about the 9th. Warm 7th to 8th. Autumnal storms and gales with rain and sleet about 11th to 14th. A November blizzard of sleet and snow is probable about 17th to 19th, with slight earthquake shock in some locations. A cold wave may be expected from 20th to 23rd. Warmer and stormy from 23rd to 27th. Lightning and thunder about 26th, followed by cold. Meteoric showers are due on 27th. Month ends warmer.

WHAT THINK YOU

Of This Outrageous Work of the Nail Trust?

Product Sent Up From $1.35 to $3.20 a Keg in One Year—Wages Reduced in Ten Factories.

ANDERSON, IND., October 31.—The wire nail trust to-day closed its books covering the third half year of its existence. Nails which a year ago sold at $1.35 now bring $3.20, with the workers receiving less wages and employed a fewer number of days than in the preceding year. Reductions in wages of from 10 to 42 per cent. as was the case in this city and Cleveland, Ohio, are among the most glaring evil effects of the past year's regime in trust rule in this industry. Small producers have had their doors closed and men have become bankrupt along with the evil effects experienced by the workmen. The trust controls fourteen of the largest plants in the country.

In no case has the wages of the workers been increased, while in all but four of the fourteen plants, there have been reductions, of which the most sweeping were in the plants here and at Cleveland. The men went out on a strike. They came near tying up all of the plants, but the trust, through the Federal Court injunctions and a bitter struggle, effected a compromise with them on a basis of no more reductions and steady employment if they would return to work.

After operating six weeks at this point, and hardly longer than that at Cleveland, in violation of all agreement, the trust shut down these plants, it is charged holding the men subject to a day's call and compelling them to remain near the mills day after day, week after week, month after month, until they had become destitute in many cases, and in some instances had to seek other avenues of employment. The plants were then opened, and the trust then made its second move by changing the working system so that the workmen—so the men claim—cannot make as much, or, in effect, another reduction, though trivial.

While labor has been affected in the trust factories by reductions many workers have been thrown out of employment by the trust closing the small concerns. Two such concern in Indiana, which operated steadily, paying good wages to about seventy-five men each, have been closed down and moved away.

CHILDREN'S STOCKING.

Perpetual motion discovered in our hosiery reductions. We are always trying to surpass our last good effort. Once again a reminder of the quality that commands our Hosiery lines. Prepare for pleasant surprises and read of these:

For 12c, a 19c. value for Friday only. Ribbed heavy weight, but elastic. An active child would find a way to wear out woven steel. These stockings are made of cotton as near steel's toughness as fabric can be. Reinforced at the knee and high spliced heel. Every pair a catalogue of good qualities—comfort, assured good wear, comeliness, fast color. Big quality for little price.

EMBROIDERED FLANNEL.

Beautifully hemstitched and embroidered in white silk or creamy all wool flannel. Arrived thirty days behind the contract dates. If it had reached us in time, September 1st, it would have all been sold by this, and the flannel in its place would be selling for $1 instead of 50c. This extremely low price for Friday only. $1 goods for 50c. sounds doubtful, but verification is easy, here.

Industry!

Maysville, Ky., October 27th, 1899.
I wish to announce to the public and citizens of Maysville, that I. O. D. Barras, on the 23rd of this month, bought out the "Power Laundry" of Mr. D. P. Ort of this city. I also hope I may enjoy the trade of my predecessors, as I have had fourteen years experience in the Laundry business, which insures to the patrons superior work with the least injury to the fabric. To all I say do not forget home industry, as it is patriotic in principle. Yours very respectfully,

ELECTION NEWS.

Returns Will Be Read at the Opera House Next Tuesday Night.

Arrangements have been made to receive the election news next Tuesday night at the opera house.

A wire will be put in, and the bulletin giving the result in Kentucky and other States will be read from the stage. A small admission will be charged.

The Y. M. C. A's County Fair.

"The County Fair" which will be held at Y. M. C. A. building November 23 and 24 will be a most attractive affair. It will be a united effort of all the churches of the city for the benefit of the association. The occasion will provide features of interest to both old and young.

Ladies who have not been solicited to take part are herewith asked and requested to show their interest in an institution which is for the advancement of the city's highest and most permanent development. They can do this by contributing to the fancy work table, lunch counters or some other feature that may suggest itself to them.

Meeting of committee in parlors Monday, November 6th, at 3:30 o'clock p. m.

CHANGE OF SEASON IS HERE

The market is full of Clothing—always will be—but when it comes to the new, stylish, well made sorts, they are scarce, and this season the house that did not buy correct styles early is simply "left at the post."

Light-colored Worsted in Plaids, Half-Plaids and Checks are a few "warm things." Then it is the shape next—short, natty, full-back Sacks, with high-cut, single-breasted and double-breasted Vests. Trousers right up to the fashion-plate and the prices—our prices—$10, $15 and $20. In Top Coats you find with us the the very newest in Coverts and Whip Cords, black and Oxford unfinished Worsted Cheviots. Elegant Castor Beavers in black, dark blue and the latest colorings in brown. No matter what good we would say about our Top Coats, the garments will more than sustain it.

No shoddy goods or inferior makes ever find their way into our stock. Our purchasing power, coupled with our selling power enables us to get the best at prices other houses pay for the ordinary. Leather and Shoes are advancing in prices. We still sell Hanan & Son Shoes (the best on earth) at $5. They sell in all cities at $6.

(WE BUY AND SELL MORE CLOTHING THAN ALL THE OTHER CLOTHING HOUSES IN MAYSVILLE COMBINED)

EVERYTHING that goes to make nice bridal presents can be found at Murphy's. Cut glass, the newest sterling silver, the finest bronze lamps, clocks, silver-plated ware, tables, fine art goods, toilet articles, in fact the finest stock in city from which to make selections.

MURPHY, the jeweler.

THE new battleship Kentucky had her builders' trial Tuesday at Newport News. She went a distance of twenty miles outside of the cape and under forced draught made an average of 16.4 knots according to the log in the face of a wind that was blowing about fifty miles an hour and in the heaviest kind of a sea. The builders were well pleased with her excellent performance under such unfavorable conditions.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

LLOYD J. BERRY.

Native of Maysville Dies at Bowling Green. The Oldest Civil Engineer in the State.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Oct. 31.—Mr. Lloyd J. Berry, of this county, perhaps the oldest civil engineer in Kentucky, died at 3 o'clock this morning. He was a member of one of the most prominent families in Kentucky.

He was born in Maysville, but moved to this city in 1840. His wife, who died several years ago, was Miss Fannie Smith, a noted beauty.

Mr. Berry was the civil engineer in charge of the building of the Louisville and Nashville pike. He leaves a son and two daughters.

Deceased was a relative of the late Keith Berry of this city.

Solid food such as pork, fish and fowl, together with delicacies in profusion were served, and all passed a most enjoyable afternoon, and when they recover from its effects are willing to try it again.

OUT IN MISSOURI

They are Anxiously Expecting a Big Democratic Victory in Kentucky.

St. Louis, U. S. A. Oct. 29, '99.
Editor Bulletin, Maysville, Ky.—I am in receipt of a Goebel badge from some friend at home. The interest taken by the good Democrats of Missouri in the affairs of Kentucky, and their love for the mother State is touching to a home man, and the desire to have the old State redeem itself from Republican rule amounts almost to a craze.

Bets are freely offered at good odds that Goebel will win, and no takers. Almost invariably when Kentucky is mentioned, the subject of politics comes up and people say, what is the matter down there in the Blue Grass State? It is just as unnatural for the old Commonwealth to go Republican as it would be for Missouri to shake her faith, and she is always sure for 75,000. It is to be hoped that the Democrats will win in this race, or we will lose the respect of our solid South. Sincerely yours,
GEO. W. BLATTERMAN, JR.

BRYAN.

The Great Leader's Advice to Kentucky Democrats.

Extracts from His Speeches Recently Delivered on His Tour Through the State.

I want to see the State ticket elected here by such a majority that they will no longer say that Kentucky is a doubtful State.

I would not deserve your confidence if I stayed in Nebraska and aided the bolting Democrats to elect a Republican Governor in Kentucky.

When these great questions are at stake, shall people stop to quarrel among themselves as to who would have been the best man to have nominated for any particular office?

The defeat of Mr. Goebel and those with him on the ticket would be a discouragement, because you may rest assured that the people who really want to defeat the Goebel ticket are not going to waste a vote upon the Brown ticket.

I want to see the Goebel ticket elected in this State from top to bottom. I want to see every man on the Goebel ticket elected by an overwhelming majority. I want to see a Legislature that will send Joe Blackburn to the Senate on the very first ballot.

I appreciate the kindly interest you have shown in myself; but, my friends, I would appreciate more the interest that you show in victory this fall, because the triumph of Democratic principles advocated in the platform adopted at Louisville means more to you, means more to Nebraska and more for the Union than anything that you could do for myself personally.

If you want to know what the people outside of this State are longing for and looking for, let me tell you they are longing and looking for a victory for the Goebel ticket that will be so large that no Republican anywhere will expect to carry Kentucky in 1900.

Men could reasonably differ as to the availability of the candidates who were willing to run upon that platform; but what Democrat can hesitate in his duty when the choice is between Goebel, standing on the Louisville platform, and Taylor, standing for Republican politics and a Republican administration?

I passed through this State just after the Louisville convention, and the first echo that I heard from the convention or read from the convention was the letter of the President of the L. and N. Railway giving the reasons why Mr. Goebel should be defeated. You may think it strange that that did not convince me that Mr. Goebel was a bad man.

You Democrats who have been led to believe that you express your Democracy by voting for the Brown ticket want to understand now—the sooner you understand the better—that when you vote for Brown instead of Goebel you withdraw your support from a Democratic possibility and make possible the election of a Republican Governor and a Republican State administration.

When you tell me that you can best advocate the principles of Democracy by voting the bolting ticket, I tell you I do not believe you can do so. I do not believe that in a great contest like this you can afford to withdraw your support from the Democratic ticket even though you vote for another Democratic ticket, if by doing so you enable a Republican to be elected. I know something of bolters. There were some in 1896.

When I remark that Mr. Goebel entered the State Senate at the age of thirty-one, and has been there for twelve years, and that a lawyer of his acknowledged ability while serving in the Senate was never charged with the abandonment of the plain people, or with being a hireling of the corporations, and when I remember that even his enemies admit he never prostituted his ability for greed, I can understand how the plain people look to him as the champion of their rights.

The Watchword of Women.

Modesty is women's watchword. Whatever threatens her delicate sense of modesty, frightens her. For this reason many a woman permits diseases of the delicate womanly organs to become aggravated because she cannot bring herself to submit to the ordeal of unpleasant questionings, offensive examinations, and obnoxious local treatments, which some physicians find necessary. Doubtless thousands of the women who have taken advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, have been led to do so by the escape thus offered from a treatment repugnant to modesty. Any sick woman may write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., in perfect confidence; all letters being treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential, and all answers being sent in plain envelope without advertising or other printing upon them. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been long hailed as "a God-send to women." It makes weak women strong and sick women well. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic.
